

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a village scene. In the foreground, a winding grey path leads through a green lawn. Several colorful houses are scattered across the landscape: a tall orange house with a red roof and a balcony, a yellow house, a green house, and an orange house with a red door. A large, bright yellow sun with rays is in the sky, partially obscured by a white cloud. A signpost with a white sign is on the right. The sky is blue with a few birds flying.
